

Team composition

- Students can participate as solo participant or in teams of max 3 members
- Students are allowed to be part of only one team per challenge
- Students can form cross-specialization as well as cross-college teams
- All the members of a team must have a valid campus email ID and Roll no

Important Information

- Registration will open on 13th May 2024
- Raw data files for the case study will be available to students from 15th May 2024 on the website
- Students can submit the final solution starting 15th May 2024
- Students should submit the proposed solutions to the challenges on the website in the prescribed format
- Students must adhere to the file naming conventions as per the guidelines mentioned on the website while sharing their results 2024_DS_Track_File1_<team-name> and 2024_DS_Track_File2_<team-name>
- Deadline to submit R1 solutions is 11:59 PM on 16th June 2024.
- There will be a real time Leaderboard which will reflect team's score among other teams
- In Round 1 : Leaderboard submissions, each team can make a maximum of 20 submissions
- In case there are multiple submissions by any team, the submission with highest accuracy will be considered for leaderboard display as well as selection to Round 2
- Final & Pre-final year students from B.Tech/B.E and third, fourth and final year students of integrated Dual-degree courses are eligible to participate in the competition
- First & Second year full-time MBA/Eco school students are eligible to participate in the competition
- Plagiarism of solutions will lead to disqualification for all involved teams
- All decisions made by American Express with regards to this competition will be final